

CENTERPOINT

CONSULTATION. TRAINING. TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.

Youth.

VAPA Training: Trends and Innovations in Adolescent and Family Substance Abuse Treatment

Families.

Location: Windjammer, South Burlington, Vermont

Community

Trainers: Mitchell Barron, LICSW LADC and Danielle Jatlow, LICSW LADC

Health.

Training Outline and Agenda

Modalities: Designed for the critically reflective and clinically practicing provider, this training includes dialogic, self-reflective, dyadic, and small group exploration and practice.

February 7th

Invitation to article: Anderson, H. (2012). Collaborative Relationships and Dialogic Conversations: Ideas for a Relationally Responsive Practice.

\(online viewable by clicking here\)

802-488-7711

Fax: 488-7732

February 13th

9:00am – 10:30am

- Welcome, Introductions, Agenda, , Learning Objectives
- Multiple Perspectives and Shared Understandings: orienting to youth and family service
- The Innovation of Intentional Practice: principles of youth and family Service

1025 Airport Drive
So. Burlington, VT
05403

10:45am – noon

- Position, Privilege, Bias, and Being in Youth and Family Service: confidence, competence, and the humility of the DKDK
- The Beauty and Complexity of Family Systems: the trend toward non-categorical and non-pathologic approaches to collaborative treatment and support
- Meaning and Relevance: Anderson (2012) article review and discussion

94 West Canal St
Winooski, VT
05404

1pm – 2:30pm

- The Integrative and Compensatory Model of Change: intentional practice based on principled understandings and reflective self-awareness
- Multidimensional and Multimodal Models of Youth and Family Service: innovative, emerging, principled, and best practices

46 Main St
Winooski, VT
05404

2:45pm – 4:30pm

- Do What You Say, Say What You Do: practicing consistent with your principles
- Amplification: defining and describing your practice for young people, for parents and caregivers, and for your community
- Aspirations, Commitments, and Next Steps: how will your practice grow, how will it change?